Dear Mr Ahmed,

Outcome of 2015-16 Institution Annual Monitoring

The University of London has now concluded the 2015-16 Institution Annual Monitoring exercise. Following the receipt of the Institution Annual Monitoring (IAM) submissions for all recognised centres and candidate institutions, the University of London has conducted a number of meetings, including with a senior executive group, to review and analyse the IAM data for all teaching institutions.

The senior executive group has reviewed the IAM submission of Themis School of Law for the 2015-16 academic year and was pleased to note that the examination results for the following programme was of an exceptional standard:

- LLB

Accordingly, I am writing to commend Themis School of Law on the exceptional examination performance for the LLB.

The recommendations and observations of the senior executive group were endorsed by the Institutions Sub-Committee of the University of London International Academy at its meeting held on 25 January 2017.

Many congratulations and I look forward to a continued successful working relationship with Themis School of Law.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Stephanie Wilson
